BY THE GLASS

UMESHU - GEKKEIKAN $6.95

Japanese plum wine. Sweet, lightly acidic and delicious. Plum Gekkeikan is made with the choicest plums from the world-renowned orchard in Wakayama in central Japan. To start or end your meal.

BANZAI! $6.95

Cold Sake and Umeshu over ice served in traditional square Japanese cocktail boxes.

SHOCHU EMMA $8.50

A distilled beverage often referred to as Japanese whiskey. This sweet potato alcohol has a nutty, earthy flavour that is bracing and strong.

JAPANESE WHISKY

SUNTORY WHISKY TOKI $12.00 single $22.00 double

Bill Murray's favourite whisky - from his commercials in Lost in Translation. Japan's #1 selling whisky - popular in mixed drinks or straight, this silky whisky has subtle sweetness and spice finish.

NIKKA FROM THE BARREL $18.00 single $34.00 double

Considered one of the best whiskeys from Japan. It is full-bodied and punchy. This blended whisky has notes of winter spices and toffee. Recommended with a splash of water to calm the bold flavours and bring out the subtle caramel taste.

AKASHI WHITE OAK $18.00 single $34.00 double

One of the oldest and smallest distilleries in Japan (near Kobe) This blended whisky is aged in ex-bourbon casks to enhance the malty, leathery, smoky notes you'd expect from bourbon. White Oak refers to their headquarter location.
